Programme understanding

What is your understanding of the programme you are applying for?	I understand that this apprenticeship is a Level 6 Marketing Manager programme that aids industry professionals with different skills and workflows that they can utilise in their day to day job roles and eventually use when they become a marketing manager or higher. The study hours are about 7 to 8 hours per week during working hours. The attendance is expected 100% for online classes and if I'm unable to attend I can catch up via alternative routes. Two hour online learning session and the rest would be covered by LMS and online assignments. The modules I would be doing are strategy and planning, commercial intelligence, customer journey optimisation, ai in marketing.

How will this programme help you in your career development/aspirations and/or with your progression?	This programme will help me learn new skills and workflows and would enable me to have the right qualifications to progress into senior management.

Additional information

Please explain how your current job role relates to the apprenticeship programme you are applying for. In your answer, include your job title, main duties, and how this programme will help you develop new knowledge, skills and behaviours in your role.	Currently, my job title is Brand and social executive and my day to day includes me managing the company's social media accounts, filming on location and at home, creating and editing content plans for the company and also doing analytic reports to my line manager to see how the social media is performing. The apprenticeship is going to give me a wider knowledge of what marketing looks like from different perspectives and how it can be applied to any type of business.
